AI DOCUMENT GENERATION & AUTOMATION

Let your AI assistant generate business documents

ChatGPT, Claude, Copilot and Gemini draft beautifully. Carbone is the engine that turns their output into the real file: it renders industry-grade PDF, DOCX, XLSX and PPTX, deterministic and byte-identical every time, from templates anyone can design and edit. No code required.

We have completely modernized all documents generated from Salesforce, from quotes to factory production documents. Previously, we relied on our IT providers to make any modifications. Now, we can update conditions or promotions directly on our quotes in just 5 minutes even during a trade show! Our quotes are also much more appealing, thanks to the automatic inclusion of photos and technical data sheets.

As a HubSpot integrator and thanks to Carbone, we simplified document generation, whether for contracts, invoices, quotes or training certificates. We reduced costs by replacing heavy and complex solutions like Pandadoc, and we increased our autonomy with a fast and seamless implementation process that requires less development than usual. This solution allows us to optimize our processes while maintaining a high level of flexibility and efficiency in our daily operations.
