"We used Personify with Adobe Connect and the research shows "virtual face to face" is much more compelling and engaging than voice to voice. We also deliver corporate

"I am really enjoying Personify and definitely see it as a distinctive and powerful new way for people to present and collaborate. Where I love Personify most is in some on-demand : training over video. In the past we had to have webcam studios with curtains and lighting. The 3D cam with Personify eliminates the need for that, which is huge."

learning that we are developing. Wow! Personify lets me absolutely differentiate our quality in ways that people notice. We look so professional and so on top of our game (which we are!)."
