I've never wrote a literal review before. That goes to show how good this app CAN be. Very useful, and convient. But is there anyway you guys can update it with an option that allows you to turn off the pin/pattern? If not, at least raise the pin keys and the pattern lock up more, so it's not directly on my fingerprint scanner? Or maybe have it so we can customize the appearance of our own lock screen to our liking? That'd be even more spectacular. If so, I'll definitely give it a five star.

Honestly this app is pretty great considering it's free. I rarely have to deal with ads and when I do it's only while I am inside the app. (People mentioned in reviews that the apps pop up outside of the app.) The only thing that I don't like is.. sometimes AppLock will stop working. To fix it I have to go into AppLock for a quick second and then it works again. Really wish that didn't happen. Hopefully someone can find a fix.

Could be exceptional if not for the constant ads + pop-ups? Keeps prompting you to upgrade to paid version, which makes zero sense to do until AFTER you do a free version with no ads first. If you click on to paid version it will tell you the cost but doesn't list a single feature in the upgraded version ? I was just too annoyed to tolerate it all, in spite of how good it was.
