EGallery is a PHP script that generates an image gallery from a directory of files without having to set up a database. What this means to you is that you can have an image gallery set up in mere seconds by just uploading the EGallery files to your web server.

Features include:

- Cached thumbnails to reduce page load times
- Upload script to add image files from your web browser
- Download all images as a .zip file
- Clicking on an image thumbnail prompts users to save the original image file to their computer

Credits:

- Utilizes the jQuery Masonry plugin to align images: <http://masonry.desandro.com/>
- Upload script from Uploadify: <http://www.uploadify.com/>
- Thumbnail creation: <http://code.google.com/p/timthumb/>

Features

- Image Upload
- Image Gallery
